

Terex Parts

Terex Parts - Terex Forklifts takes great delight in manufacturing quality equipment that helps improve their customers' performance while standing by their goal to provide a cost effective yet consistent product line. Through numerous divestitures and acquisitions intended to expand the product offering, Terex has recently expanded dramatically. They have improved their geographic coverage to enable them to deliver quality standards and value for their broad client base.

Remaining a aggressive player in the mechanized equipment sector, Terex is forming a franchise under the Terex brand name. The business is incorporating their earlier brand names for some of their parts in conjunction operations the Terex trade name for a smooth transition process. Currently, Terex goods are principally marketed under the Terex brand name. A number of of the following historic brand names and transitional names include: ATC, Amida, American Truck Company, American, Advance, Bartell, Benford, Bendini, Bid-Well, CMI, CMI-Cifali, CMI Johnson-Ross, Cedarapids, Canica, Comedil, Demag, ELJay, Franna, Fermac, Finlay, Fuchs, Genie, Hi-Ranger, Jaques, Load King, Morrison, O&K, Peiner, PPM, Powerscreen, Pegson, Reedrill, Schaeff, Simplicity, Standard Havens, Tatra, TerexLift, Telelect and Unit Rig.

Terex has shown steady growth, purchasing PPM Cranes, in 1995 while divesting Clark Material Handling in 1995. In 1997 Terex acquires Telelect and Simon-RO. BPI Handlers in Baraga, Michigan is also acquired this same year.

Buying O&K Mining and Payhauler in 1998, enabled Terex to mature their mining operations. The same year their crane offering expanded their operations greatly with the acquisitions of Gru Comedil, TerexLift, American Crane and Peiner. A Light Construction business soon followed in 1999 when Terex acquired Amida, Bartell and Benford. They quickly became a leader within the crushing and screening market by purchasing Cedarapids, Powerscreen, BL Pegson, Re-Tech, and Finlay. Franna, Kooi and Princeton crane companies were also added to Terex in 1999.

By buying Fermac, a specialized maker of tractor loader backhoes, in the year 2000, Terex expanded into the Compact Equipment marketplace. Their Light Construction business continued to expand operations with the acquisition of Coleman Engineering. This same year, Terex divested Moffett, Kooi and Princeton.

In 2001, Terex expanded their Roadbuilding division business with the acquisitions of CMI, Bid-Well, Load King, Atlas and Jaques.

Several acquisitions in 2002 placed Terex among the leaders in their respective categories. Terex became a primary crane company as Demag fills out the Terex Cranes product offerings. Advance Mixer places Terex in the concrete mixing industry. Buying German makers Fuchs and Schaeff placed Terex in a top position in the Compact Equipment category. Genie became a principal manufacturer of Aerial Work Platforms. This busy year was completed operations with the purchases of EPAC and Pacific Utility, which offered company-owned distribution for Terex Utilities.

Tatra, a manufacturer of heavy-duty lift trucks designed for on and off-road industrial and military applications were purchased in 2003. Buying Combatel and Commercial Body the same year enabled Terex to continue to expand its company-owned Terex Utilities supply.

In the year 2004, Terex purchased a producer of surface drilling equipment used in mining, construction and utility markets, called Reedrill. Also in the same year, Noble CE (formerly known as Terex Mexico) was acquired by Terex. They design high capacity surface mining trucks and also manufacture several parts for other Terex businesses.
